"They love to man the deck guns. When we sank two freighters not so very far from Japan with our deck guns, the crew had a real holiday, for most of them had a chance to see what was going on."

Chinese Drive Japs Out of Changteh

CHUNGKING, Dec. 1.-American and Chinese planes, providing a "brilliant air cover," helped Chinese troops drive the Japanese from Changteh, the gateway to Changsha and the nation's vital "rice bowl" region, Generalissimo Chiang Kaishek's headquarters announced to-Japanese forces had entered the city Monday.

The Chinese also claimed the recapture of Tehshan on the highway between Changteh and Changsha in Hunan Province and wiped out most of the Japanese troops in two nearby villages.

Two Chinese columns, by-passing Changteh with the evident intention of surrounding the invading forces around the city meanwhile, converged on the highway town of Linli, little more than 20 miles north of Ghengteh. A major portion of the Japanese troops there was withldawn.

Gen. Yu Cheng-wan, latest Chinese hero of the Asiatic war, personally directed the bloody fighting which cleared Changteh's streets of the enemy by 8 o'clock this morn-

Our Trust Investment Policy

As trustees of an estate, this Bank does not invest funds only in low-yield bonds, unless required by the will or trust agreement to do so.

We consider security, of course. But the beneficiary's need for income, and other factors, also determine our investment policy for each trust.

Our objective is always to make the trust provide support for the beneficiary, to the fullest extent permitted by the size of the estate and the powers given to the Bank as trustee.
